Overview

Most reviews highlight the battery's reliability, long life, and the peace of mind from the built-in safety features as their favorite aspects. lead-acid, doubles usable capacity, 30% lighter, built-in BMS, maintenance-free, and supports parallel/series . They have good reviews on Amazon (always suspect), and they come in 100, 200, and 300 Ah models, and also have heated models. Would love someone's info on a deep dive into these things before my investment. coding=UTF8&psc=1&refRID=08RBASJE6Y2VAZHRT1AG Please . In this video, we review the CHINS LiFePO4 Battery 12V 200AH, a high-capacity lithium battery built for long-lasting power and dependable performance. A 200Ah LiFePO battery from Chins and a 1500W pure sine wave inverter from ALFFAA. This battery is a deep cycle battery that provides 2000 cycles compared to 300 500 cycles in lead acid batteries, making it far more durable and reliable. The batteries are $200 to $500 cheaper than competitors, but appear to be a high-quality product. I use the inverter all the time, but .
