Ultra Fast Charging Station for Electric Vehicles / Cobe

In cooperation with Danish e-mobility provider Clever, COBE has designed a new type of charging stations for electric vehicles (EVs) in Scandinavia.

Ultra-fast Charging Stations - Cobe

Each charging station provides a meaningful and much needed break. A space to recharge your car in just 15 minutes as well as your own mental and physical batteries.

Inside BYD's Megawatt Charging-and What It Means for the

The core principle of megawatt flash charging lies in the coordinated power supply between the grid and energy storage systems. Through a two-stage conversion process (AC/DC and DC/DC),

Cobe and CLEVER Design Modular Ultra-Fast Charging Station

One of the unique features of the design is the modular concept, which means that the charging stations can be tailored to fit any urban context. It is a modular assembly kit of canopies scalable for different
