

European solar rack anti-dumping duties

Overview

The EU reached an amicable agreement in its trade spat with China over the dumping of Chinese-made solar panels on the European market. Five years ago, the European Union imposed provisional anti-dumping tariffs on Chinese solar panels. Since then, Brussels and . nts (i. Particularly concerning is the closure of the US and Indian PV markets to Chinese imports, owing to the imposition of imp rt tariffs and the Uyghur Forced Labor Prevention Act in the USA. The EU currently stands as on of the few . In a joint statement, 433 European solar companies and associations warn that trade measures would injure the EU solar sector to the detriment of the EU's green energy transition at a critical moment in time. A definitive anti-dumping duty is imposed on imports of crystalline silicon photovoltaic modules or panels and cells of the type used in crystalline silicon photovoltaic modules or panels (the cells have a thickness not exceeding 400 micrometres), currently falling within CN codes ex 8501 31 00 . The worst fears of the Chinese solar panel producers have come true with Europe starting the history's biggest anti dumping case against their products. A trade group called ProSun led by German solar panel maker Solarworld, complained against super cheap imports of solar modules from China to the .
