

Gambia wind and solar storage

Overview

This article explores the project's timeline, technical innovations, and how battery storage solutions like those developed by EK SOLAR are reshaping energy security in developing economies. Solar power batteries in Gambia, such as deep cycle storage batteries, are . Gambia, a sun-drenched nation with over 3,000 hours of annual sunshine, is uniquely positioned to leverage photovoltaic energy storage systems. Yet, nearly 40% of its rural population still lacks reliable electricity access. Similarly, in the realm of wind energy, only small-scale projects initiated by private investors and non-governmental organizations exist. On the other hand, Ukrainian private utility DTEK has energised the largest battery storage project in the war-torn country and one of the biggest ones in Eastern Europe. To ensure sustainability, a three-year operations and maintenance contract (O&M) has been signed as part of the project. Large scale solar PV is entirely new to the region. The Gambia solar energy and battery storage market witnessed a substantial increase in imports from 2020 to 2024. 37% in 2024, indicating a significant surge in import volumes .
